STATE SECRETS ACCUSATION--On 8 April the National Assembly endorsed a report from the constitution and justice commission asking that parliamentary immunity be lifted from the Republican People's Party Deputy from Yozgat, Celal Sungur. Sungur allegedly gave secret economic information to Slavik, an Austrian who was tried for spying. During discussion on the report, Sungur asked that his immunity be lifted so he could clear his name. (Ankara Domestic Turkish 2045 GMT 8 Apr 68 M)
